

Third Social Accountability School

Collaborating Institutions: Ateneo School of Government, Philippines (ASOG),
Participatory Research in Asia, India (PRIA), and SILAKA, Cambodia
Supported by: PECSA, World Bank

ESSAY

NAME:	MALE:	FEMALE:
RESIDENCE:
MOBILE PHONE NO.:
EMAIL ADDRESS:
NAME OF ORGRANIZATION:
ORGANIZATION ADDRESS:
ORGNIZATION PHONE NO:
POSITION IN ORGANIZATION:
Instructions: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Answer each question thoroughly using size A4 papers. You are allowed a maximum of 10 pages for your entire essay; double-spaced, font size 12 and electronically written in English.2. Submit your essay in the English to SILAKA (krysopheap@silaka.org) by June 30, 2009 5:30pm the latest.
Question No. 1: From which module, topic or discussion did you learn most? Why?
Question No. 2: How would you explain the relationship between Social Accountability, Good Governance and Decentralization to your fellow Cambodians, in government and civil society sector, and the public in general?
Questions No. 3: What resistance or challenge do you expect from the different stakeholders? How will you convince them to adopt the Social Accountability approach in their governance work?
Question No. 4: How can you immediately apply what you have learned from SAS? Make an action plan for 6 months.
Question No. 5: Given the action plan, in what aspects of it will you need a mentor most?		