

Announcement for Media professionals and TV Network

SILAKA with collaboration with Oxfam Cambodia is urgently seeking Media professionals and TV network to produce short drama and round table discussion on women in leadership.

The aims of these initiatives are to empower women and young females to exercise their power over their lives and their live from violence. The key focus is to promote women's leadership especially young women in public and political both in formal and informal leadership role at all levels, as well as to raising women's voice to be heard .

The Objective of this call is to seek two providers for 2 initiatives:

Initiative 1: Produce _10__ round table discussion and reportages to be broadcasted TV channel;

Initiative 2: Produce --4__short Docu-drama on real cases of women in leadership Interested profession, organization of TV network should send a letter of interest outlining the experiences and a short proposal to accomplish these assignments by the due time.

For more information, please get the full term of References for OXSI 001 and/or OXSI002 by logging to SILAKA Webpage www.silaka.org, or email to Ms. Mork Sereyroth at sereyrothm@silaka.org Closing date is Friday 19 May, 2017 at noon.

Download References for OXSI 001 and/or OXSI 002